

OPEN DAYS

2007

The University Of Brighton - Faculty Of Arts And Architecture Wednesday 7 & Wednesday 14 February

Introductory Talks

Introductory talks include a welcome by the Head of the School of Arts & Communication and the Head of the School of Architecture & Design, followed by a presentation providing useful information about the University, admissions to art and design courses, and finance.

All talks in the Sallis Benney Theatre, Grand Parade

10.00 am & 1.30 pm

Fine Art Painting, Critical Fine Art Practice, Fine Art Sculpture
Fine Art Printmaking, Digital Music, Performance and Visual Art
(pathways - Music, Theatre, Dance)

10.45 am & 2.15 pm

Three Dimensional Design, Wood Metal Ceramics and Plastics,
Fashion Textiles Design / Fashion Design with Business Studies,
Interior Architecture/Architecture (introductory talk morning only)

11.30 am & 3.00 pm

Editorial Photography, Graphic Design, Illustration

Guided Tours

Guided tours of course areas are on offer after each of the introductory talks. There will be an opportunity to meet staff and students, to visit studios and workshops and to view students' work.

It would be helpful if visitors could arrive at least 10 minutes before the talks are due to start.